

We keep information about you to help us look after you.

This information includes your name, age, address, family, any treatment you are having or have already had, and anything else important.

We keep all of this safe and only show people who need to see it, for example your doctor. They will keep it safe too.

